

What are the INVALSI examinations?

Those are tests standardized nationally to evaluate the learning, which came subminister in second and fifth grade at the elementary school, at first and third grade in the middle school, and in all second grade in the high school. Those are tests organized by the INVALSI, served with the intention of the Education Ministry (Ministero dell'Istruzione) to evaluate the preparation level of all Italian students in Italian and Mathematics.